Gladys Delemos & Aries Mladinov at the 2009 AAPA Graduation Ceremony

Founded in 2003, AAPA continues to provide a year long program that consists of workshops and experiences to enhance management and leadership skills.

In addition to the workshops, we have a very successful mentoring program and host various networking opportunities, where we also invite other influential Asian American leaders to share their career experiences.

We would like you to consider AAPA as an opportunity for you or your company's employees to get involved to help expand the Asian American management pipeline.
